

Participant Documentation

The gorgeous Ballina Shire is blessed with a beautiful collection of sparkling inland waterways and Ballina Kayaks are the local experts when it comes to exploring them with a paddle in your hand. Thank you for choosing us to show you around this amazing part of the world.

Please read this entire document carefully prior to taking part in the tour. Separate copies of this document must be completed and signed for every participant and returned to Ballina Kayaks prior to commencement of the tour. Please initial every page. Where a participant is less than 18 years of age, a parent or guardian should complete the paperwork on their behalf.

What to bring

When participating in Ballina Kayaks tours or using equipment hired from Ballina Kayaks, please bring the following items with you.

- Light clothing that will dry quickly. Synthetic materials and wool are best. Cotton clothing should be avoided and jeans are not appropriate for kayaking.
- Shoes are to be worn at all times due to oysters and other sharp objects. Please wear old joggers, wet booties or shoes that cannot easily come off and are able to be worn in the water. Thongs or slip-on shoes are not appropriate as they come off easily and do not offer adequate protection.
- Hat - A broad-brimmed hat or Legionnaires cap is best.
- Sunglasses
- Sunscreen
- Insect repellent
- One litre bottle of drinking water
- Rain jacket in wet weather
- Warm clothing in cool weather
- Towel and change of clothes to be left at start for after trip
- Completed and signed Ballina Kayaks Participant Documentation (i.e. this document) for each participant. Where a participant is less than 18 years of age, a parent or guardian should complete the documentation on their behalf.

As there is limited room to carry extra items with you on the kayak, excess gear may need to be left behind at the start.

Please be aware if you bring a camera or a mobile phone, it may get wet. Ballina Kayaks takes no responsibility for any damage caused to photographic or electronic equipment.

Assumption of risk

I acknowledge that there are known and unanticipated risks inherent in kayaking and other outdoor adventure activities in which I may participate, that could result in physical or emotional injury, paralysis, death or damage to me, to property, or to third parties. I understand that such risks cannot be totally eliminated without jeopardising the essential qualities of the activities.

I understand that the risks include but are not limited to: boat capsize, tidal conditions and currents, accidents while travelling to and from remote locations, collision with objects or other watercraft, prolonged exposure to cold water, hypothermia, accidental drowning, illness in remote area, exposure to sun, strong wind, cold storms, large waves, eddies, whirlpools, and lightning, aggressive and/or poisonous marine life, wrist, arm, shoulder, and/or back injuries, slips and falls while hiking, and rapid changes in the weather and water conditions. I also appreciate that there is reduced access to adequate medical facilities or medical supplies, and limited means of evacuation by road, trail, boat, or plane.

I expressly agree and promise to accept and assume all of the risks existing in this activity. My participation in this activity is purely voluntary, and I elect to participate in spite of the risks.

I accept that Ballina Kayaks guides have difficult jobs to perform. They seek safety, but they are not infallible. They might be unaware of a participant's fitness or abilities. They might misjudge the weather, the elements, or the terrain. They may give inadequate warnings or instruction and the equipment being used might malfunction.

I am aware that outdoor travel with groups invariably involves compromise to accommodate the ability levels, diverse desires, travel goals, and personalities of group members. The trip leader may be required to make decisions based on group safety, which may not please personally but are based on the safety of the group as a whole. I acknowledge and accept these aspects of group travel. I release Ballina Kayaks from any and all liability.

Release of liability

I hereby agree and assume to be responsible for my own welfare, accept any and all risk of delay, unanticipated event, emotional trauma or death. I have and do hereby assume the risks explained above and will hold Ballina Kayaks, owners, agents, and associates harmless from and defend them from any and all actions, causes of actions, suits, debts, demands and claims of every kind and nature whatsoever which I now have or may hereafter arise out of or in connection with the tour. I agree that this agreement will be binding upon my heirs, next of kin, executors, administrators and successors.

I am mentally, physically and in all other respects fit and fully able to participate in adventure travel. I declare that I am not suffering any disease or physical or mental disability that could affect my safety, or the safety of the tour party. I agree that if I suffer injury or loss, Ballina Kayaks can at my cost arrange medical treatment and emergency evacuation services as Ballina Kayaks deems essential for my safety and that of its staff.
